

TUESDAY IS THE WORLD'S

"Bargain Day."

All "For Sale" advts., five lines and under, appearing in to-morrow's paper will be repeated in THE EVENING WORLD free of charge.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

EVENING EDITION

The World

"Circulation Books Open to All."

THE WORLD'S CIRCULATION

For the five exciting Chicago strike days was:

MONDAY	587,870
TUESDAY	543,318
WEDNESDAY	533,281
THURSDAY	530,293
FRIDAY	540,832

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, JULY 23, 1891.

To-Morrow Is The World's "Bargain Day." All "For Sale" Adverts. of 5 lines and 'The Evening World EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

PATROLMEN PAID ALSO.

Mrs. Thurow Again Cross-Examined at the Police Investigation.

THEIR PRICE ONLY $2 A WEEK.

enies that She Acts from Spite, but Says She "Had It in for Capt. Martens."

HE PROMISED DR. PARKHURST.

That's Why She Says She Appeared as a Witness Before Senator Lexow's Committee.

Twenty police officers filled seats in a trial room at Police Headquarters. President Martin and Commissioner Sheehan, Murray and Kerwin sat in the front of the room. Mrs. Thurow was ready to resume the trial of Capt. Doherty and ex-Ward Men Hoch and Mehan on the charge of levying blackmail for protection from Mrs. Thurow, keeper of a disorderly house.

Twenty police officers filled seats in a trial room at Police Headquarters. President Martin and Commissioner Sheehan, Murray and Kerwin sat in the front of the room. Mrs. Thurow was ready to resume the trial of Capt. Doherty and ex-Ward Men Hoch and Mehan on the charge of levying blackmail for protection from Mrs. Thurow, keeper of a disorderly house.

Twenty police officers filled seats in a trial room at Police Headquarters. President Martin and Commissioner Sheehan, Murray and Kerwin sat in the front of the room. Mrs. Thurow was ready to resume the trial of Capt. Doherty and ex-Ward Men Hoch and Mehan on the charge of levying blackmail for protection from Mrs. Thurow, keeper of a disorderly house.

Twenty police officers filled seats in a trial room at Police Headquarters. President Martin and Commissioner Sheehan, Murray and Kerwin sat in the front of the room. Mrs. Thurow was ready to resume the trial of Capt. Doherty and ex-Ward Men Hoch and Mehan on the charge of levying blackmail for protection from Mrs. Thurow, keeper of a disorderly house.

Twenty police officers filled seats in a trial room at Police Headquarters. President Martin and Commissioner Sheehan, Murray and Kerwin sat in the front of the room. Mrs. Thurow was ready to resume the trial of Capt. Doherty and ex-Ward Men Hoch and Mehan on the charge of levying blackmail for protection from Mrs. Thurow, keeper of a disorderly house.

Twenty police officers filled seats in a trial room at Police Headquarters. President Martin and Commissioner Sheehan, Murray and Kerwin sat in the front of the room. Mrs. Thurow was ready to resume the trial of Capt. Doherty and ex-Ward Men Hoch and Mehan on the charge of levying blackmail for protection from Mrs. Thurow, keeper of a disorderly house.

Twenty police officers filled seats in a trial room at Police Headquarters. President Martin and Commissioner Sheehan, Murray and Kerwin sat in the front of the room. Mrs. Thurow was ready to resume the trial of Capt. Doherty and ex-Ward Men Hoch and Mehan on the charge of levying blackmail for protection from Mrs. Thurow, keeper of a disorderly house.

Twenty police officers filled seats in a trial room at Police Headquarters. President Martin and Commissioner Sheehan, Murray and Kerwin sat in the front of the room. Mrs. Thurow was ready to resume the trial of Capt. Doherty and ex-Ward Men Hoch and Mehan on the charge of levying blackmail for protection from Mrs. Thurow, keeper of a disorderly house.

Twenty police officers filled seats in a trial room at Police Headquarters. President Martin and Commissioner Sheehan, Murray and Kerwin sat in the front of the room. Mrs. Thurow was ready to resume the trial of Capt. Doherty and ex-Ward Men Hoch and Mehan on the charge of levying blackmail for protection from Mrs. Thurow, keeper of a disorderly house.

Twenty police officers filled seats in a trial room at Police Headquarters. President Martin and Commissioner Sheehan, Murray and Kerwin sat in the front of the room. Mrs. Thurow was ready to resume the trial of Capt. Doherty and ex-Ward Men Hoch and Mehan on the charge of levying blackmail for protection from Mrs. Thurow, keeper of a disorderly house.

Twenty police officers filled seats in a trial room at Police Headquarters. President Martin and Commissioner Sheehan, Murray and Kerwin sat in the front of the room. Mrs. Thurow was ready to resume the trial of Capt. Doherty and ex-Ward Men Hoch and Mehan on the charge of levying blackmail for protection from Mrs. Thurow, keeper of a disorderly house.

Twenty police officers filled seats in a trial room at Police Headquarters. President Martin and Commissioner Sheehan, Murray and Kerwin sat in the front of the room. Mrs. Thurow was ready to resume the trial of Capt. Doherty and ex-Ward Men Hoch and Mehan on the charge of levying blackmail for protection from Mrs. Thurow, keeper of a disorderly house.

Twenty police officers filled seats in a trial room at Police Headquarters. President Martin and Commissioner Sheehan, Murray and Kerwin sat in the front of the room. Mrs. Thurow was ready to resume the trial of Capt. Doherty and ex-Ward Men Hoch and Mehan on the charge of levying blackmail for protection from Mrs. Thurow, keeper of a disorderly house.

Twenty police officers filled seats in a trial room at Police Headquarters. President Martin and Commissioner Sheehan, Murray and Kerwin sat in the front of the room. Mrs. Thurow was ready to resume the trial of Capt. Doherty and ex-Ward Men Hoch and Mehan on the charge of levying blackmail for protection from Mrs. Thurow, keeper of a disorderly house.

Twenty police officers filled seats in a trial room at Police Headquarters. President Martin and Commissioner Sheehan, Murray and Kerwin sat in the front of the room. Mrs. Thurow was ready to resume the trial of Capt. Doherty and ex-Ward Men Hoch and Mehan on the charge of levying blackmail for protection from Mrs. Thurow, keeper of a disorderly house.

Twenty police officers filled seats in a trial room at Police Headquarters. President Martin and Commissioner Sheehan, Murray and Kerwin sat in the front of the room. Mrs. Thurow was ready to resume the trial of Capt. Doherty and ex-Ward Men Hoch and Mehan on the charge of levying blackmail for protection from Mrs. Thurow, keeper of a disorderly house.

Twenty police officers filled seats in a trial room at Police Headquarters. President Martin and Commissioner Sheehan, Murray and Kerwin sat in the front of the room. Mrs. Thurow was ready to resume the trial of Capt. Doherty and ex-Ward Men Hoch and Mehan on the charge of levying blackmail for protection from Mrs. Thurow, keeper of a disorderly house.

section that she appeared as a witness to spite Capt. Martens, Mr. Fromme asked the witness why she told the Lexow Committee that lawyer Sullivan had charged her $10 for certain service, and complained of it as an over-charge.

"Why, it came in the regular course of my evidence," she replied.

Mrs. Thurow claimed that the policemen charged the girls into the house from the street, that that was how they came to make arrests in the house. This set Mr. Fromme's teeth on edge. He inquired about the arrest of Clara Smith.

"Yes," said Mrs. Thurow, triumphant. "Clara Smith was arrested in her room on a warrant, and that was the only arrest ever made on a warrant in the house."

"Do you know Police Justice Hogan?" "Yes."

"Didn't you tell Judge Hogan when you arrested that you paid big money, but was not protected?"

Mrs. Thurow denied this, and Mr. Fromme asked:

"When and to whom did you first pay money to any member of the police force in Capt. Doherty's time?"

Mrs. Thurow denied this, and Mr. Fromme asked:

"In November, the day after election in 1892, I paid to Ward Man Hoch and Mehan, two police officers, $2 a week, to keep them out of my house."

"I paid Mehan twice, in November and December. Then I paid Capt. Doherty in January, and after that I paid Ward Man Hoch."

Mrs. Thurow said that Capt. Doherty conducted the first raid on her house in person.

"As a matter of fact there was as many as twenty arrests in a week made on the girls in front of your house," asked Mr. Fromme.

"Some of them were my girls. Some were the girls of the other girls," said Mrs. Thurow.

Mr. Fromme returned to the money payments. Mrs. Thurow got tangled in her testimony. She said she paid money, and Mr. Weiman asked and read in the minutes of the Lexow Committee, to which Grant and Fromme vigorously objected.

Mrs. Thurow testified, said Mr. Weiman, reading, "I paid $2 a week to Mehan in November, $2 in December, and in January he was charged."

"How many times did you call on Capt. Doherty?" asked Mr. Fromme.

"Called on Doherty five times."

"I didn't claim protection till after I was raided by the police," said Mrs. Thurow.

Then she counted up five times that she had called on the Captain. Asked for details, she said:

"About two days before election, 1892, I called at the station. I went into the office and told the Captain that I wanted to do the right thing. I had always got along with Bessert, and I didn't want to leave her. She said she would send a man around, and that the man would be a detective. The detective would be a detective because the detective would be a detective."

Bessert was the woman man under Capt. Doherty. The second visit was in January. The third visit was in June, and the fourth in August or September, 1892.

FOILED THE INCENDIARY.

A Damn Cot and Calm House-keeper Prevent Panic or Death.

Five Families Quietly Vacate a Delinquent Street Tenement.

ONE LINE BACKS DOWN BURNED IN HER DOCK.

Backbone of the Steamship Companies' "Strike" Broken.

Couldn't Bluff the United States Government.

Will Pay for the Feeding of Rejected Immigrants.

Paid Patrolmen as Well as Others.

In November, the day after election in 1892, I paid to Ward Man Hoch and Mehan, two police officers, $2 a week, to keep them out of my house."

"I paid Mehan twice, in November and December. Then I paid Capt. Doherty in January, and after that I paid Ward Man Hoch."

Mrs. Thurow said that Capt. Doherty conducted the first raid on her house in person.

"As a matter of fact there was as many as twenty arrests in a week made on the girls in front of your house," asked Mr. Fromme.

"Some of them were my girls. Some were the girls of the other girls," said Mrs. Thurow.

Mr. Fromme returned to the money payments. Mrs. Thurow got tangled in her testimony. She said she paid money, and Mr. Weiman asked and read in the minutes of the Lexow Committee, to which Grant and Fromme vigorously objected.

Mrs. Thurow testified, said Mr. Weiman, reading, "I paid $2 a week to Mehan in November, $2 in December, and in January he was charged."

"How many times did you call on Capt. Doherty?" asked Mr. Fromme.

"Called on Doherty five times."

"I didn't claim protection till after I was raided by the police," said Mrs. Thurow.

Then she counted up five times that she had called on the Captain. Asked for details, she said:

"About two days before election, 1892, I called at the station. I went into the office and told the Captain that I wanted to do the right thing. I had always got along with Bessert, and I didn't want to leave her. She said she would send a man around, and that the man would be a detective. The detective would be a detective because the detective would be a detective."

Bessert was the woman man under Capt. Doherty. The second visit was in January. The third visit was in June, and the fourth in August or September, 1892.

FOILED THE INCENDIARY.

A Damn Cot and Calm House-keeper Prevent Panic or Death.

Five Families Quietly Vacate a Delinquent Street Tenement.

At 2:30 o'clock Mrs. Hyman, who lives on the third floor, sitting at her window, became aware that her room was fast filling with smoke. She went down to the first floor and told the house-keeper, Mrs. Isaac Lannan, that the house was on fire.

In the mean time, somebody had turned in an alarm, and the firemen came. In the cellar an old cot, filled with straw, was found burning in a wood-bin. It was very damp, and would not burn.

Some of the companies are in debt for the cost of the fire. The firemen, however, have not yet received their money. The firemen, however, have not yet received their money.

The matter will be referred to the Fire Marshal to investigate. The wood-bins, which were filled with straw, were found burning in a wood-bin. It was very damp, and would not burn.

ASSAULTED BY A CROWD.

Mary Meyer's Charge Against William Dutcher and Four Others.

William Dutcher, nineteen years old, of 72 Hall street, Brooklyn, was charged by Mary Meyer, seventeen years old, of 479 Myrtle avenue, in the Clermont Avenue Police station this morning with criminal assault.

STEAMER FAVORITE DESTROYED IN NEWARK THIS MORNING.

Two Boys Chopped Out from Her Blazing Hold.

Seven Men Escape by Dashing Through Flames and Smoke.

NEWARK, July 23.—The steamer Favorite was burned to the water's edge at her dock early this morning, and seven men and two boys had a narrow escape from a horrible death.

The Favorite was a new boat, and built to run between Newark and Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show, at Amorese Park, South Brooklyn. Sundays she ran to Rockaway Beach.

On the nine persons who were on board the steamer when the fire started, seven escaped by dashing through the flames and smoke at the peril of their lives.

Two boys, Charles Martin and Edwin Burt, had even a closer call. They were in the steamer's hold, and imprisoned and cut off, apparently, from all possible escape by the flames.

The fastenings had burned away and the boat had drifted out into the river, making their rescue seem doubly hopeless, when Peter McGilbey, with rare bravery, leaped into the stream with an axe and swam out to the burning steamer.

The American, Hamburg-American and Red Star refused to take part in the "strike."

The strike of the combination to get redress at Washington led through, but the purpose was not abandoned, and last Friday Commissioner Schuyler was served with a notification from the "strikers" that his system would not longer be complied with.

Washington and received immediate instructions to examine immigrants on board the vessels, and to compel the steamship companies to keep rejected immigrants on board.

The cause of the fire and loss are as yet unknown.

LIVELY TRADING IN SUGAR.

Most Stocks Are Sluggish and None Too Strong.

Pullman Among the Specialists that Show a Gain.

It was all sugar at the Stock Exchange this morning. The stock first advanced a point, to 163.18, round amounts changing hands on the way up, but as soon as the short interest had been lessened a reaction set in and sales were made at 162.18.

The bulls still claim that the Trust will get ample protection, and they are certainly backing their opinion with a good deal of confidence. The general market continues as sluggish as ever, and prices as a rule were fractionally lower in sympathy with a decline of 1-8 to 1-2 per cent. at London.

Atchafalaya bonds were pressed for sale and declined 1-8 to 2 per cent. to 107 1/2. The 4s and 5s, for the 2nds, Class A, declined 1-8 to 106 1/2.

The 10s and 15s, for the 2nds, Class A, declined 1-8 to 106 1/2.

The 10s and 15s, for the 2nds, Class A, declined 1-8 to 106 1/2.

The 10s and 15s, for the 2nds, Class A, declined 1-8 to 106 1/2.

The 10s and 15s, for the 2nds, Class A, declined 1-8 to 106 1/2.

The 10s and 15s, for the 2nds, Class A, declined 1-8 to 106 1/2.

The 10s and 15s, for the 2nds, Class A, declined 1-8 to 106 1/2.

The 10s and 15s, for the 2nds, Class A, declined 1-8 to 106 1/2.

The 10s and 15s, for the 2nds, Class A, declined 1-8 to 106 1/2.

The 10s and 15s, for the 2nds, Class A, declined 1-8 to 106 1/2.

The 10s and 15s, for the 2nds, Class A, declined 1-8 to 106 1/2.

The 10s and 15s, for the 2nds, Class A, declined 1-8 to 106 1/2.

THAT THREATENED FIGHT OVER COREA.

We Know How It Is Ourselves.

SCAFFOLD GAVE WAY. TOP COATS IN STYLE TO-DAY. DOUBTED BY LEADERS

Twelve Workmen Fell with a Crash Into the Cellar.

One Dying and Many Others Were Seriously Injured.

Considered Miraculous that Any Escaped Instant Death.

A scaffold upon which nearly a dozen men were at work on the building in course of erection at 508 West Forty-second street, fell this morning.

As a result one of the men is dying in the Roosevelt Hospital and many others were afterwards conveyed to their homes seriously injured.

TONY MAXWELL, twenty-eight years old, of 467 West Forty-sixth street, ankle broken and suffering from shock, taken to his home.

JOSEPH LEFFO, forty years old, of 147 Elizabeth street, leg broken and internal injuries. Taken to his home.

JAMES TIERNEY, thirty-seven years old, of 304 East One Hundred and Second street. Severe scalp wound and other injuries. Taken to his home.

JULIAN ANGELO, twenty-four years old, of 197 Elizabeth street, sprained ankle and suffering from shock. Taken home in an ambulance.

That the twelve men on the scaffold did not meet with instant death is regarded as almost miraculous.

The contractor is John Van Dusen, of 202 Madison avenue, who is erecting the building for John A. Leighton, a veterinary surgeon and horseholder, of 306 West Forty-second street.

The men had been at work on the structure for several weeks and one of the floors was only completed last Saturday. The walls of the building as well as an extension had, however, all been built, but none of the floor beams had been put in place.

The men started in to work as usual at 8 o'clock this morning. A short time before the contractor himself got on the scaffold and tested it.

He believed it was fully secure. Then the twelve men got on the scaffold, which was a quantity of mortar and lumber.

Suddenly a cracking noise was heard, and before the men had time to cry out the whole scaffolding gave way and fell to the cellar excavation.

A crowd quickly gathered, among the number being several policemen, and alarms for ambulances were turned in. Before the arrival of the latter, however, a number of the men who had been on the scaffold, managed to extricate themselves from the debris, and to aid in digging out the others.

The ambulances were on the scene within a few minutes after the fall had been properly braced. He thought that one of the planks must have sprung.

"All the men who were injured," he said, "have worked for me for years and know their business thoroughly. I am sorry for them."

Suicide of a Policeman.

HARTFORD, Conn., July 23.—Policeman John Rafferty committed suicide last evening by shooting himself in the forehead. No cause is known for the deed. Rafferty has been on the force only two months. He leaves a widow and five small children.

Change in Temperature Makes Summer Clothes Unpopular.

Mercury Takes a Drop of 30 Degrees in Eighteen Hours.

HOURLY HEAT RECORD.

Hour.	Degrees.	Hour.	Degrees.
8 A. M.	80	1 P. M.	68
9 A. M.	78	2 P. M.	66
10 A. M.	76	3 P. M.	64

The lowest temperature recorded for July 23, on the same date last year, the mercury stood at 68.

It is not fickle Dame Fashion, but the gentleman in charge of the New York weather who is responsible for the sudden change from poncee silk to English tweeds.

A drop of 30 degrees in temperature in eighteen hours caused a revolution in customs as well as costumes. The cooling circus feminine has been superseded as a popular drink by a mast-pumping, blue-grass article which satisfies the thirst and at the same time acts as a brace to the general constitution.

The weather department is under the impression that this connection with an autumnal fact that the weather is such a great trick considering the data at hand.

It is estimated on the Virginia coast yesterday that a cool wave was due, and said, "I am not a fortune teller, but I am a weather man."

At Norfolk the rainfall was two inches, at Lynchburg three inches, and at Washington 2 1/2 inches. These storms may reach New York by this evening. The prevailing forecast, however, and the rainfall here will be comparatively light.

At New York City, Mr. Dunn says, "New York will get back to summer weather, and green silk umbrellas and Chinese fans will be in vogue."

The lowest temperature in this city today was 64. At 8 o'clock it was 66, at 9 o'clock 64, at 10 o'clock 62, at 11 o'clock 60, at 12 o'clock 58, at 1 P. M. 56, at 2 P. M. 54, at 3 P. M. 52, at 4 P. M. 50, at 5 P. M. 48, at 6 P. M. 46, at 7 P. M. 44, at 8 P. M. 42, at 9 P. M. 40, at 10 P. M. 38, at 11 P. M. 36, at 12 M. 34.

The forecast for the day is fair, with rising temperature for tomorrow.

Weather Forecast.

The weather forecast for the day is fair, with rising temperature for tomorrow.

Weather Forecast.

The weather forecast for the day is fair, with rising temperature for tomorrow.

Weather Forecast.

The weather forecast for the day is fair, with rising temperature for tomorrow.

Organized Labor Not Seeking Control of the National Guard.

Evans Do 'T B'ieve Sovereign Issued Such an Order.

In Fact Just the Opposite Policy Is Being Followed.

The story published to the effect that General Master Workman Sovereign had issued an address to Knights of Labor all over the country asking them to join the National Guard associations in the several States for the purpose of controlling it, is not believed by any of the labor leaders in this city. Had such an address or appeal been issued the officers of the different district assemblies claim they would have heard something about it, yet up to the present they have not received the slightest communication from the subject.

The policy of the Knights over since the Buffalo strike has been to keep out of the National Guard as much as possible. In fact, at that time, instructions that no Knights should join the militia in the future, and all Knights who were National Guardsmen at that time were asked to retire from the service as soon as their term of enlistment expired.

"That order is still in force," said Secretary Murphy, of D. A. C. in this morning. "And if the National Guard is to be controlled, it is not by the Knights, but by the Government."

Secretary Murphy said that the Knights have been told to keep out of the militia in the future, and all Knights who were National Guardsmen at that time were asked to retire from the service as soon as their term of enlistment expired.

"That order is still in force," said Secretary Murphy, of D. A. C. in this morning. "And if the National Guard is to be controlled, it is not by the Knights, but by the Government."

Secretary Murphy said that the Knights have been told to keep out of the militia in the future, and all Knights who were National Guardsmen at that time were asked to retire from the service as soon as their term of enlistment expired.

"That order is still in force," said Secretary Murphy, of D. A. C. in this morning. "And if the National Guard is to be controlled, it is not by the Knights, but by the Government."

Secretary Murphy said that the Knights have been told to keep out of the militia in the future, and all Knights who were National Guardsmen at that time were asked to retire from the service as soon as their term of enlistment expired.

"That order is still in force," said Secretary Murphy, of D. A. C. in this morning. "And if the National Guard is to be controlled, it is not by the Knights, but by the Government."

Secretary Murphy said that the Knights have been told to keep out of the militia in the future, and all Knights who were National Guardsmen at that time were asked to retire from the service as soon as their term of enlistment expired.